

Tales of Clever Peter

Letter to God

Clever Peter had nine children are small. Not reached our clothes, our bread. Dazed his head, poor, how to feed them. He plans to ask for money from his grandfather gentlemen, and sat her letter he wrote: "Father God, give me nine children. I can not feed them. Going to die of hunger. Pray you send me a hundred pennies to help me just halfway. " put it in the church, at the very altar. The priest found the letter, read it, and sent the sexton to bring Petra fifty pennies and tell him: "The Lord sent you the money in grandfather Pop."

Once you get money Clever Peter count them, wrote a second letter to Santa and God back into the altar let him go. In the letter he wrote: "Lord, send me a hundred pennies. Them Do not send a priest grandfather, but directly to me: for of a hundred pennies that you sent me, priest stole fifty!"

Clever Peter is the hero of Mariovo folklore. As its name suggests it has the smarts and wit and even deceit. Rival in the stories about him is Nasreddin Hodja, the personification of the typical Turk. After the liberation of Balkan occupies its place in its modern version - Bai Ganjo. Unlike Bai Ganjo, which is sometimes considered vulgar, simple and having other negative qualities Clever Peter remained in the minds of Marivwc as a positive hero.
